Whether you're looking to make an impression, have an exquisite meal or to escape the everyday, you'll find a culinary or cocktail offering for all occasions and tastes. Long Bar serves world-class cocktails from an airy, light and energetic bar and Purple Bar provides a theatrical setting for conversation.

The image shows the interior of a restaurant with a modern, minimalist design. The ceiling is a light, textured material with several large, dark, teardrop-shaped pendant lights hanging from it. A large, square, textured concrete pillar stands in the background. The floor is made of light-colored wood. In the foreground, there are several wooden tables with dark chairs. The tables are set with white napkins, silverware, and glasses. The overall atmosphere is warm and sophisticated.

LONG BAR

At some 80-feet in length, Sanderson's dramatic Long Bar is the focal point for energy at Sanderson. The Long Bar has been remodeled with nature in mind, to become the Bar of Nature, dripping with climbing vines and hanging plants. Stuart Bale, leading cocktail maestro, has devised a delectable new cocktail menu and the concept for the drinks - 'Not as Nature Intended' - is an exploration of the beauty of nature and how we can play with it.

Kick the week off in style with Aperitivo Tuesdays. Heading into mid-week with Live Music on Thursday nights, followed by funky house and nu disco DJ residencies Thursday, Friday and Saturday lasting until the early hours.
